SAM DAVIS DRAWS

THE LINE.

A Reno dispatch to the Sacramento Bee gives some of the inside facts regarding the recent tilt that the newspaperman and lawyer engaged in at the banquet given by the Nevada State University at the Commencement Day exercises. The dispatch says:

As the result of several unwise toasts delivered by attorneys of Reno and a jolting tilt between Sam Davis and Nate Roff—the former State controller and the latter Senator from Washoe County—several ugly controversies are echoing from the banquet given at the State University on the day the students graduated.

In the first place, several members of the Washoe County Bar, particularly A. E. Cheney and Judge B. F. Carlier, took advantage of the presence of a large number of newspapermen to lecture them upon the ethics of newspaper work. Several newspaper men took serious exception to their remarks, but none would raise an unpleasant controversy during the festivities. Sam Davis, State Controller, replied in a good humored speech to the lawyers and incidentally remarked that the Washoe County delegation, which contained several lawyers, had defeated a bill two years ago which cost the State about $3500 in the purchase of some property. Senator Roff a Reno newspaper man, responded in a joking manner that Davis had a $500 graft in the bill which caused its defeat.

Under ordinary circumstances the matter would have passed unnoticed, but as the relations among a number of the guests had suddenly become strained it was taken seriously by many, including Davis himself. In an open letter a day or two later to the press, Attorney Cheney referred to Roff's joking remark, and his serious interpretation of it has resulted in Controller Davis demanding a Grand Jury investigation. He expressed himself as deeply offended over the incident. Senator Roff, however, has written a letter to Davis, disclaiming any intention to charge him with grafting, saying that he intended his remarks as a joke.

The resentment of the newspaper men toward the attorneys for their ill-timed remarks is still evident, however.

CUT IN RATES.

Rumors which have been current in local railroad circles to the effect that the Southern Pacific contemplated a decided cut in passenger rates to points East were confirmed yesterday. It was announced by a high official of the company that this lowering of fares would be brought about by a reduction in the rates in the State of Nevada. After July 1 the mileage rate in that State will be reduced by a clear cut of 25 per cent. This will mean that 4 cents per mile will be charged on all lines of company in Nevada after that date, as against a prevailing schedule of 5 cents.

Information about the cut was given out after a conference of the passenger officials in the Ferry building yesterday afternoon. It is understood that this reduction has been contemplated by Passenger Traffic Manager Fee and other officials of the line for some time, in fact ever since Nevada began its era of phenomenal prosperity some two years ago. Prior to that time it was a well known fact that local passenger business of the Southern Pacific in that State was the highest per mile of railroad of all the States of the Union in which its cars run. It is thought that the lower passenger rates in Nevada will have the effect of reducing to an appreciable extent all other passenger rates to the East of competing lines which feed into the State.

CUPID WILL LAUGH.

T. Spense Smith of Rapides has introduced in the state legislature a bill to regulate marriage contracts and prevent race suicide. The bill only applies to whites and provides:

"It shall be unlawful for any young man to attempt to court any young woman before he is 21 years of age.

"Before making such attempt he shall inform the parents or guardian of the woman he proposes to court of his intention to do so.

"He shall also make affidavit before a justice of the peace that his courtship will be in good faith and for the purpose of trying to convince the young woman that it will be profitable for her to marry him.

It shall be unlawful for widowers over the age of 40 years to attempt to court any woman under the age of 18 beyond the confines of the parish of their residence.

"After the passage of the act all children born to legally married people in this state shall be raised and educated at public expense.

"All boy children shall be sent to the state university at Baton Rouge and all girl children to the state normal school at Natchitoches."

An appropriation of $17,000,000 to carry out this education feature is provided for in the bill.

FINED.

The Kimbells, who hold the contract for delivering the mail overland from Las Vegas to Bullfrog, a distance of 120 miles, have just been fined for taking it part of the way by rail and getting in 24 hours ahead of time.

They protested that they sent it a part of the way on the Las Vegas and Bullfrog Railway, now in process of construction, at the request of the people of Bullfrog who wanted their mail earlier, but the excuse was not accepted.

The fine stands and they will hereafter stage it the entire distance across the desert, and it will arrive 24 hours later than it can now be delivered.

The Department says it is paying for stage delivery and that the contract will have to be literally fulfilled no matter what the delays are.

BURIED ALIVE.

A dispatch from Elko says that a startling discovery was made there the other day by workmen that are removing the bodies from the old city cemetery. The remains of two persons were found to be face downward in the casket and the body of a third person was found lying on its side. As the flesh had fallen from their bones it was impossible to gain from their features any expressions of agony but there is little doubt that all three were buried alive.

Identification of the remains was impossible. There was no name plate upon the casket, which had rotted almost completely away and nothing in the casket, gave any clue to their identity. From all appearances they had been buried for thirty five or forty years.—Star.
